"IRON LUNG BOY," BRIDE AFTER WEDDING

JOINED IN WEDLOCK—Following Chicago ceremony, Mrs. Fred Snite, Jr., former Teresa Larkin, looks down upon her beaming groom, widely known infantile paralysis victim. They were wed in the Snite home yesterday. After a one-day honeymoon they returned to the "Iron Lung Boy's" home, where in the next month he'll undergo new treatments.

Snite, Bride Planning 2d Honeymoon

CHICAGO, Aug. 11 (INS)—Fredrick B. Snite, Jr., infantile paralysis victim, and his bride were looking forward today to a "second honeymoon," although they had been married only one day.

That "second honeymoon" will begin, they said, the day Snite no longer needs his "iron lung" to breathe.

Mrs. Snite is the former Teresa Larkin, 25, of Dayton, O. She and Snite, famous as the courageous "Iron Lung Boy," became man and wife in a simple ceremony yesterday in the Snite home.

The marriage came as a dramatic surprise to all but immediate members of the two families. The newlyweds left on a one-day honeymoon trip through northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin.

The journey was made in the 29-year-old Snite's trailer, which carries the 300-pound iron lung in which he has lived since he was stricken with infantile paralysis three years ago in China. The newlyweds were accompanied by a chauffeur, Kay Graf, a nurse, and one of Snite's attendants, Raymond Hyatt.

One stop was made at Elkhorn, Wis., where the honeymooners dined with friends, Mr. and Mrs. V. N. Olier. They returned to the Snite mansion in River Forest after covering some 220 miles.

$30,000 FUGITIVE HUNTED IN MAINE

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 11—Federal, state and local authorities worked together today in spreading a dragnet around fashionable Maine shore resorts for Louis "Lepke" Buchalter, termed "America's most dangerous public enemy" by Prosecutor Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

A man described as corresponding closely to the description of the country's most wanted had been reported to have been seen driving through the shore resort section of Maine in a sports automobile operated by a licensed chauffeur.

After a man who identified himself only as "Connolly" telephoned Portland police he had seen "Lepke" leave the State of Maine Express at Union Station here, police communicated with local Department of Justice office, and the Maine part of the nation-wide search for the labor racketeer began.

COUNTS ON AUDACITY

Police in Old Orchard, Ogunquit, York and Wells Beach were notified to be on the lookout for a sports car driven by a chauffeur in uniform.

It was thought "Lepke," taking refuge in barefaced boldness, had traveled from New York in state in a drawing room on the express, and then had himself met in Portland by a chauffeur, thinking to escape the vigilance of authorities by his very daring.

Federal men feared, however, that "Lepke," by prearrangement, might have been taken to sea in a fast boat from some harbor along the coast, and have boarded a foreign vessel outside the three-mile limit.

Another alternative was that the racketeer, who has been the object of a "dead or alive" search since prospective witnesses against him began to suffer a high mortality rate in New York, might have escaped to Canada in a fast car.

$30,000 ON HIS HEAD

District Attorney Dewey, heading the search which has already resulted in the circulation of more than 1,000,000 circulars describing the criminal, has offered $25,000 for his return, "dead or alive," and the

Slight Change Voted In Levy Set by House

With "pressure politicians" barred the Senate today passed a modified version of the joint taxation committee's bill to increase the state "take" from the pari-mutuel handles of dog tracks.

The amended bill, knocking one-half of one per cent off the proposed take on the first $75,000 wagered at any track any given night, passed on roll-call by a vote of 19 to 14, and was moved to a third reading by a vote of 30 to 4.

Following engrossment, it must go to the House, where a battle over the amended compromise may ensue.

The new version, proposed by Sen. Arthur W. Hollis, of Newton, who declared a 4 per cent take of the first $75,000 would "drive the Dogion track out of business," provides for adherence to the present take of 3½ per cent for the basic tax, with 5 per cent on the next $50,000, 6 per cent on the next $30,000, and 7 per cent on all over $140,000.

TO RAISE: $478,000

It is believed to be acceptable to Gov. Saltonstall, who, in a special message, stated his tax program requires at least $450,000 in new revenues from this source.

The taxation committee's plan was designed to raise from $475,000 to $500,000.

And even as the wrangle waxed vociferous, Governor Saltonstall signed the omnibus tax bill, to which he attached his own emergency preamble, thus insuring it going into effect by September 1.

The omnibus bill, designed to

House Approves Job Insurance Merit Plan

A "merit-rating" system of graded contributions by employers to the Massachusetts unemployment compensation fund was approved today by the state House of Representatives.

The proposed system will save first time low labor turnover an estimated total of $12,000,000 to $16,000,000 annually, its supporters claim.

He returned to duty after physicians stated the child was in good condition.

Link 'Job Scout' To 2d Slaying

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Aug. 11—While police here sought a mystery woman named "Jocelyn" today, hoping to obtain from her further information about kidnap-slayer Charles "Goddard" Jefferson, Pennsylvania authorities linked the accused killer with an unsolved sack-murder at Kingston, Pa.

The Kingston victim was Margaret Martin, 19. She was lured from her home by promise of a job, just as was the girl Jefferson confesses hacking to death here. Miss Martin's body was found wrapped with wire and sewn in a sack in a branch of the Pennsylvania river seven months ago. Pennsylvania police said today they believed Jefferson to be the Herbert William Goddard, Jr., sentenced several years ago in Chester, Pa., for attack on a young girl there.

FEAR MOB VIOLENCE

They asked that he be questioned closely now about the Martin girl's slaying, due to "striking similarity" between that murder and the one he is accused of here.

Arrest of Jefferson here followed the kidnaping of two young women, one of whom was attacked and slain.

Held in an undisclosed jail—possibly the "escape-proof" skyscraper house of correction at Miami—because of threats of mob violence, Jefferson was said to have begged officials to be allowed to pay for his crime.

"I've got nothing to live for, so let's get things over with as soon as possible," he was quoted by police as saying.

HUNT MYSTERY WOMAN

The 34-year-old man of many aliases, whose radio and stage work often led him to Boston, was given a heavy guard when crowds in the streets were heard muttering threats.

Detectives instituted search in Miami today for the mysterious woman—"Jocelyn." She was mentioned said County Solicitor W. E. Roebuck, in Jefferson's confession to the murder of Ruth Frances Dunn, 17, Miami high school brunette beauty.

Police quoted Jefferson as saying he kidnaped the Dunn girl and Jean Bolton, 19, also a Miami student, in an effort to arouse the feelings of "Jocelyn," who had spurned him.

INTENDED NO MURDER

When Miss Dunn spoke in a derogatory manner concerning "Joe yn," Jefferson flew into a wrath and struck the first death blow, he was quoted by police.

"It wasn't what I intended at all. I had no intention of hurt-

TROPICAL GALE NEARING FLORIDA

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 11 (AP)—A tropical disturbance of less than hurricane force moved today toward the Florida east coast in a direction which the weather bureau said would carry it inland near Palm Beach about mid-afternoon.

At 9 a. m. (E. S. T.) advisory reports placed the storm 100 miles east-southeast of Palm Beach. It was moving west-northwest at 11 miles per hour.

"The center is very small, but attended by a small area of gale winds up to 30 miles per hour and a larger area of squalls," the report said.

Storm warnings which earlier had been displayed from Daytona beach to Key West were ordered down south of Miami.

Although forecasters emphasized that the disturbance was of only moderate intensity, persons in exposed areas along the coast evacuated and some buildings were boarded up.

Miami reported a slowly dropping barometer—29.83 at 8 a. m.

and winds of 10 miles an hour. The sky was murky and occasional light rain fell. Tides were only slightly above normal.

Nassau, Bahaman capital, had winds of 35 to 40 miles an hour, not sufficient to cause damage, local night.

F. D. MESSAGE SEEN AS BAN ON THIRD TERM

Wheeler's Stock Up in 'Liberal' Demand

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11—President Roosevelt today had served notice on the Democratic party it must nominate a liberal New Deal ticket in 1940 or he "will take a walk."

His message to the Pittsburgh convention of young Democrats—announcing he will not support a conservative Democrat for the presidency next year—constituted an indirect but strong hint that he will not seek a third term in the White House. It marked the first time the President has publicly stated any part of his plans for 1940.

The hint was repeated when Senator Claude Pepper, White House confidant and staunch third-term advocate, told the convention "irrespective of a third term for the President himself, the young Democrats of America demand a third term for Roosevelt's ideas." This was a distinct retreat from the Florida New Dealer, who has been demanding another term for the President.

THUMBS DOWN ON GARNER

The double hint provoked immediate speculation on the President's classification of Democratic potentialities—whether they fall into the liberal class or the banned conservative class. Washington politicians are divided as to whether the President was aiming a shot at Vice President John Nance Garner, along with the Harrisons, Clarks and Tydings of his party. One group contended he was turning "thumbs down" on Garner, a "conservative" who is leading Democratic presidential polls all over the nation.

Another group, including some close friends of the President, asserted he has never "black-listed" Garner, even though the Vice President has opposed his government spending plans. This group contended the statement was aimed at the Harrisons, Clarks, Tydings and at Security Administrator Paul V. McNutt.

Last night McNutt, by this group, in the informal class follows the International News Service revelation that the White House "palace guard" is considering a movement to keep him from winning the nomination if the President does not run.

WHEELER STOCK RISES

The anti-McNutt move appears to indicate the "palace guard" either are uncertain whether the President will run or have secret information he does not now desire to run.

A formidable "dark horse," in view of the President's statement, seems to be Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, now back in Mr. Roosevelt's good graces following their break on the Supreme Court bill. There is a deep undercurrent for Wheeler, arising in the west and spreading eastward. He is an old time liberal, having run on the late Robert M. La Follette ticket in the 1924 campaign.

Wheeler has been a friend of the New Deal except in the Supreme Court fight.

F. D. WON'T CALL BACK CONGRESS

By GEORGE DURNO

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 11—Only a reasonably certain threat of war in Europe or the Far East will impel President Roosevelt to call a special session of Congress before January, he said today.

At his Hyde Park press conference, the President scoffed at Washington reports he intended to recall the Congress that joined him so hard.

If such a special session call should come—provided only the actual crisis of war abroad became imminent—Mr. Roosevelt said his only concern would be to insure American neutrality.

To queries whether he planned to drop his cash-and-carry proposal the President replied a lot of things could be done without Congressional action and repeated that his concern in event of war abroad would be to get the United States back to international law—or simple repeal of the arms embargo.

McNutt Speaks Today;

F. D. Bans Conservative

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 11 (INS)—The National Convention of the Young Democrat Clubs of America swung into its second day of formal sessions today, with warnings from both President Roosevelt and Sen. Claude Pepper of Florida that the party's candidate next year must not be a conservative and must wholeheartedly support the Administration's liberal ideals.

Paul V. McNutt, Federal Security administrator, who is being booed by the Indiana delegation as a potential New Deal presidential candidate, will be on the program this evening, as will Pennsylvania's junior senator, Joseph E. Guffey.

2 New York Fliers Start Ocean Hop

ST. PETERS, N. S. Aug. 11 (Canadian Press)—Two New York aviators, Alex Loeb, 32, and Dick Decker, 23, announcing their destination was Ireland, took off from Point Milsand Beach, near New York, today in a Ryan monoplane.

The pair had been seen around Cape Breton Airport at Sydney, N. S., 50 miles from here, for about a week, but had given no indication of planning a transatlantic flight.

The start was made at 9:04 a. m. (E. S. T.). The plane carried 250 gallons of gasoline.

JEWISH REFUGEES RUSH TO RUMANIA

CONSTANZA, Rumania, Aug. 11 (AP)—Homeless Jews continued today to pour into this seaport with the faint hope of crushing Britain's sea blockade into Palestine.

Two river boats with 483 Jews from Hungary and former Austrian regions of Germany reached the mouth of the Danube river at Sulina where they were stopped for passport examination. Several hundred Jews already were waiting there for a chance to continue toward Palestine.

The freighter "Tiger Will" sailed with 850 Jewish refugees. More than 700 Polish Jews arrived by special trains and 1600 Czechoslovak Jews landed at Braila, on the Danube.

The tramp steamers are provided by the "Belar" organization in which are grouped Palestine's extreme Jewish Nationalists. Passage rates are high.

A handful of ragged men brought news of the steamer Liel and its 800 Jewish passengers. The Liel's captain was in jail in Palestine, it was stated, and most of the passengers were held in camps.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 11 (AP)—The Japanese navy today set August 21 as a deadline after which no more German Jewish refugees will be permitted in the section of the Shanghai International Settlement north of Soochow creek.

300 North End Children March On City Hall

More than 300 children from the North End marched to City Hall today behind a four-piece band to protest conditions in their neighborhood.

Led by a dozen shirt-sleeved spokesmen, the children visited the office of Acting Mayor George A. Murray to register complaints about conditions at the Prince st. bathhouse and the North End Playground, as well as to protest sanitary conditions in the district.

In the absence of the acting mayor, they told Assistant Secretary William L. Crawford that playground facilities in the North End were suffering from neglect, and howled down an attempt by City Council Candidate Joseph Russo to steal the show.

Crawford said he would see that city departments were put to work cleaning up alleged conditions and would call Mayor Tobin's attention to the situation on the latter's return from Europe.

Mayor Tobin sailed today from Cobh, Ireland.

Handyman too Handy Stealing Store's Goods

Thefts of medicines and sick room supplies, valued at more than $1000, were allegedly traced today to a janitor and handyman in a Massachusetts ave. Back Bay, drug store.

Police said the man and three others, one of them manager of another Massachusetts ave. drug store, would be arrested and arraigned in Roxbury court, the latest on charges of receiving stolen goods.

'Grip for Life' So Tight It Kills Boy, 10

GREENVILLE, S. C., Aug. 11 (AP)—Ernest Hall, 10, got a death grip on a rafter as he fell into an elevator shaft while playing in a vacant building.

He was found hanging by his elbows on the beam 15 feet from the bottom of the shaft. A physician said the boy had held himself so tightly against the rafter that the fourth left rib was pressed against his heart, causing it to stop.

REVISED SECURITY LAW O.K'D

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 11 (AP)—President Roosevelt signed today a bill making broad liberalizations in the Social Security act and cutting hundreds of millions of dollars off the tax burden it imposes.

The President said in a formal statement that "these amendments to the act represent another tremendous step forward in providing greater security for the people of this country."

"This is especially true," he added, "in the case of the Federal Old Age Insurance system which has now been converted into a system of old age and survivors' insurance, providing lifetime family security instead of only individual old age security to the workers in insured occupations."

ALL SHARE BENEFITS

"In addition to the worker himself, millions of widows and orphans will now be afforded some degree of protection in the event of his death, whether before or after his retirement."

The President said the size of benefits to be paid during the early years would be "far more adequate than under the present law."

"However," he asserted, "workers in other occupations have been excluded. In my opinion, it is imperative that these insurance benefits be extended to workers in all occupations."

Millions of persons will benefit from the changes made in the security law.

STARTS JANUARY 1

The tax of 1 per cent on employees and 1 per cent on employers, based on individual earnings up to $3000 a year, will be retained, at least until Jan. 1, 1943.

January 1, 1940, also will mark the start of old-age insurance benefits—two years earlier than the old law would have allowed.

These benefits are in the form of pensions, as distinct from old-age assistance for old persons who already are in need.

One change in the law grants pensions to an estimated 200,000 individuals who will reach 65 years of age before next January 1, provided they pay, or have paid, Social Security taxes for 18 months.

The statute formerly permitted pensions only for insured individuals who reached 65 on or after January 1.

People eligible for old-age assistance can get a maximum of $40 a month under the new law, $10 more than the previous limit.

KECH OFF TO SAIL ROUTE OF COLUMBUS

Dreams of Prof. Samuel Eliot Morison, Harvard historian, moved a step closer to realization today as his expedition began the first leg of an ocean voyage to retrace the route of Christopher Columbus.

First to depart was the 45-foot ketch Mary Otis from Portland, Me., with a crew of three—William D. Stevens of Jacksonville, Fla., skipper; Frank W. Hartman of Miami, Fla., mate, and Gilbert B. Stevens of Lawrence, L. I., navigator.

Prof. Morison is planning to sail from Oyster Bay, L. I., Tuesday in the 140-foot schooner Capitana with the rest of the expedition, comprising three women and 15 men. The ships will meet at the Azores, starting place of the western voyage.

The feminine members will be Mrs. Morison, Mrs. Paul L. Hammond of New York, wife of the veteran yachtsman who will command the Capitana, and Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, Jr., whose sister-in-law is the wife of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

For Prof. Morison the trip will culminate the dreams of four years of study of Columbus' trips to the New World. In the winter of 1937-38 he sailed through the Lesser Antilles in a yawl and checked the route of the discoverer's second voyage.

A year ago he identified the first European settlement in the New World—Columbus' Navidad in Haiti.

"The trip was explained as an attempt to study history 'by sight and feelings,' rather than by academic speculation in libraries."

F. D. Begins Sea Trip Tomorrow

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 11 (NS)—President Roosevelt will leave here tomorrow morning by motor for New York City where he will board the U. S. S. Cruiser Tuscaloosa for a ten-day cruise in North Atlantic waters. Representatives of the three press associations will accompany him on the convoy destroyer Lang.

At the boat, the President has arranged to meet Mayor LaGuardia and George Meany, chairman of the State Federation of Labor.

As soon as the Tuscaloosa, newest-type 10,900-ton cruiser, weighs anchor, President Roosevelt will head straight for Campobello, N. B., where his mother has a summer cottage and his son, Franklin, Jr., now is vacationing.

The President hopes to reach Campobello Monday morning. Barring fog, he plans to go ashore for lunch with his son.

Thereafter, he intends to cruise around in waters off Newfoundland or Nova Scotia.

VANDERBILT ANTI-GARNER

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 11. William H. Vanderbilt, Governor of Rhode Island, is distinctly not one of the John Vance Garner boosters. The Republican Governor took time out today to deny that he was in sympathy with the Garner-for-President Club.

BRITAIN GIVES UP CHINESE TO JAPS

LONDON, Aug. 11 (INS)—In a striking new bid for peaceful negotiation of crucial questions besetting the world, Great Britain today agreed to hand over to Japanese jurisdiction a group of Chinese long wanted by Tokyo authorities for the murder of a Nipponese customs inspector at Tientsin.

Refusal of the British government to surrender the alleged terrorists weeks ago led to a Japanese blockade of the British and French concessions at Tientsin and endangered Anglo-Japanese relations so greatly that Prime Minister Chamberlain recently threatened to dispatch a fleet to Asiatic waters.

In announcing the decision, the foreign office emphatically repudiated suggestions that it represented to the slightest degree any "capitulation" by Great Britain to the totalitarian states.

"There is no bargaining and no surrender involved," a spokesman said. "This is entirely a judicial matter."

"It has no connection with current Anglo-Japanese diplomatic negotiations. It is being handled entirely separately from other incidents at Tientsin."

Despite this disclaimer, it was the unanimous opinion of diplomatic observers that Britain had decided upon this step as a major move to clarify the increasingly difficult situation in the Far East.

"Boston After Dark," by George Holland, appears every day in the Boston American.

Big Wakefield Still Seized

A huge moonshine alcohol still, alleged source of supply for a bootleg liquor running ring operating throughout northern New England and upstate New York, was seized today by Wakefield and Stoughton police and federal agents in a raid on an supposed poultry farm in Lotus ave., Wakefield.

The still, valued at more than $5000, was found concealed in a henhouse, raiding officers said.

A gas main had been tapped, they charged, to furnish heat for the 1000-gallon boiler.

Also seized by the raiders were 300 gallons of mash and 400 gallons of moonshine alcohol.

Two men were arrested, one of them the alleged tender of the still, the other the occupant of the property.

The raid was the result of a liquor seizure in Vermont, where federal agents halted a moonshine-running truck and arrested the driver.

Under questioning, he allegedly furnished clues which led to tracing of the load to Wakefield.

Italian, Nazi Envoys Confer on Axis Plans

SALZBURG, Germany, Aug. 11 (AP)—Italian Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano arrived here today for a three-day conference with German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop to attune the Rome-Berlin axis to new conditions in Europe.

Ciano brought suggestions from Premier Mussolini on what the closely co-operating political and military partners should do about the free city of Danzig, the Balkans and the Far East.

The two ministers began immediately in conversations which, it was acknowledged in every official capital, may have a profound bearing on the course of events in unsettled eastern Europe in the next few weeks.

The two foreign ministers are expected to travel tomorrow to nearby Berchtesgaden to see Adolf Hitler, now at his mountain chalet. Plans call for them to spend the afternoon and perhaps the evening at the Fuchers retreat.

Ciano stepped from his train with a broad smile and shook hands heartily with Von Ribbentrop, who escorted him between rows of Hitler Youth to a waiting automobile.

The German foreign minister accompanied his guest to Oesterreichischer Hof where the Italians were quartered.

Ribbentrop left immediately and Ciano, wearing a gay blue suit, followed a half-hour later to the scene of their meeting, Castle Fuchel. Von Ribbentrop's 16th century summer home, about 16 miles south of here.

London 'Black Out' In Air Raid Defense

LONDON, Aug. 11 (AP)—Great Britain's greatest blackout—a demonstration of civilian and military defenses against bombing raids early today blotted out lights in half of England, an area populated by 30,000,000 persons.

As dawn streaked the eastern sky, just before the signal for "lights on," Sir John Anderson, lord privy seal and air raid precautions chief, told reporters that the experiment would prove of "great value" but that it was impossible yet to "express a considered judgment."

As daylight progressed anti-aircraft searchlights which had flamed the sky for three and a half hours were dimmed and London, nerve center of the 28 blacked-out counties of Southeastern England, came back to life.

Early air ministry reports on the success of London's defenses—pursuit planes, anti-aircraft guns and the balloon barrage—were sketchy but Londoners, who tramped about in the dark hours thought it was significant that few bombing planes were seen over the city.

Danzig Nazi Chief Leaves for Germany

DANZIG, Aug. 11 (INS)—Leaving the controlled Danzig press to carry out his war of words against Poland, Nazi Leader Albert Goetz left today for his home town of Fuerth, West Germany, where he is due to make another speech tomorrow night.

Goetz's speech before 60,000 anti-Semitic Danzigers in the free city's Langer market place last night bore out reports that he came from Berchtesgaden under orders from Hitler to avoid any provocative incident that might precipitate a conflict.

Plan to Build New 'Alcatraz'

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (INS)—Plans for construction of a new "Alcatraz" at a spot at least 25 miles removed from human habitation have been submitted to the budget bureau by the Justice Department. It was learned today.

The new institution would cost $3,000,000 and it would house about 300 of the nation's most hardened criminals.

A definite site for the prison has not as yet been chosen.

LABOR SHY OF F. D. 3D TERM

After a stormy debate on the floor, the Massachusetts State Federation of Labor today sent back to its executive committee a resolution endorsing President Roosevelt for a third term, refusing either endorsement or rejection.

The action came after the Federation discussed the advisability of backing the President, should he have aspirations to retain his high office in 1940.

At the same time, the delegates winding up their week-long session at Hotel Bradford, voted to censure John L. Lewis for his attack on Vice President Garner without, however, mentioning the CIO chief by name.

It was made clear, however, that the vote was not to be interpreted as an endorsement of the Texan for the Presidency in 1940.

Among other resolutions adopted as the delegates prepared to reject their efforts for another year was one providing for a state fund to insure workers in industry. Previous measures of the same type had been defeated by a powerful insurance lobby, the delegates were told.

Chairman Harry A. Russell of the resolutions committee apologized to the convention for suggesting to specify Communism in the resolution condemning un-American political ideas.

Election of next year's officers was the final piece of business before the convention, with all of the chief officers, including State Federation President Nicholas P. McGlissie, scheduled for re-election.

'Heart Baby' Rallies As Oxygen Is Given

MANILA, Aug. 11 (AP)—Baby Mary Heart Rafael, born Monday with her heart completely exposed, breathed normally again late today under the stimulation of oxygen treatments and chemical injections. Doctors expressed new hope for the infant's life.

An incubator was brought into use to maintain body temperature and proper pressure after a sudden respiratory condition had led doctors to fear the child might not survive another day.

The doctors unofficially expressed belief the respiratory difficulties might have been caused by gradual closing of the tiny hole in the upper chest through which arteries lead from the exposed heart.

They said another cause might have been general heart fatigue due to the unnatural position of the organ, which rests on the child's chest and is protected by a thin glass cup.

Most of the doctors oppose an operation to place the heart in its normal position, fearing fatal results. X-ray examinations revealed the chest cavity is underdeveloped.

Plastic Surgery 'Only Hope' for Heart Baby

BALTIMORE, Aug. 11 (AP)—A Baltimore surgeon, who 17 years ago assisted at an operation on a baby born with heart exposed, suggested plastic surgery today as a possible means of saving a Manila baby who has lived since Monday with its heart resting on its chest.

Dr. Cyrus F. Horine, associate professor of surgery at University of Maryland Medical School, said the Baltimore patient—only exposed heart birth record here—died within three days, but:

"If we had known then what we know now, the story might have been different."

Research indicated, he continued, that the most practical method of remedying the exposed heart condition seemed to be skin grafting, together with rib fracture and reconstruction to cover the organ naturally.

Dr. Horine said the 1922 operation here was recorded with a movie camera.

Fatal Craigville Air Crash Probed

HYANNIS, Aug. 11—While two young widows mourned the deaths of their aviator husbands, aeronautics officials today launched an investigation into the crash of a monoplane a mile off Craigville Beach in full view of thousands of bathers.

The investigators will seek to determine the cause of the tailspin that sent the small cabin monoplane plummeting 800 feet and the reason for its sudden disappearance beneath the surface.

Victims were Frank Carlson, 32, of Barnstable rd., father of two children and vice-president of the newly organized Cape Cod Flying Club, and Richard Kimm, 22, of Old Town rd., West Hyannisport, father of one child, and employed as a local mechanic.

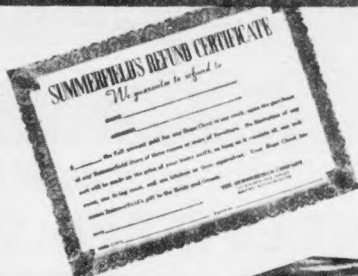

A small patch of oil on the water's surface spotted by Harbor-master George Surgis, who was enjoying a late afternoon sail with four small children as passengers, led to recovery of the two bodies.

The report of the medical examiner today indicated Carlson died of a fractured skull and that Kimm drowned.

On the beach the stress of the two victims were waiting Mrs. Ethel Kimm, night operator at the local telephone exchange, had learned of the accident when she reported for duty.

Ghosts of Past Join Battle of Common

High words and violent gestures are keeping the pigeons a little more on the alert around the bandstand in Boston Common today.

High words and surrounding phrases, and all the animated members of that outdoor forum where each day are settled the affairs of the city, State and nation, not forgetting the rest of the wide, wide world, are practically in a turmoil.

Why? A personal vital constitutional issue has been plumped into their laps, and by a court of record.

The issue: Has, or has not a man the right to stand and talk in Boston Common? Or, on the orders of a policeman, must he remain seated? If so, why?

The issue came to a head before Judge John G. Brackett, in municipal court. Arraigned was one Richard Wells, 26, of Worcester st., Belmont. He was charged by Sergeant John F. Pettit of the Beacon Hill police station with:

1.—Delivering an harangue without a permit. 2.—Making loud outcries. 3.—Refusing to obey the lawful order of a policeman.

Pettit said Wells was making a speech, with loud outcries, and refusing to sit down.

Wells denied he was making a speech, saying he was merely talking to a friend. He denied the loud outcries, and as for the last—

"He (referring to the policeman) told me to sit down," said Wells, or, leave the Common. I told him I preferred to stand. He arrested me."

On the way to jail—where, incidentally, he spent the night—he called back to the forum members:

"Boys, help me out."

They did.

They went in a body to the office of the Civil Liberties Union. They talked to Attorney Thomas B. Shea, who appeared in Wells' behalf today.

He was found not guilty of making a speech, not guilty of loud outcries, but was fined $2 for "refusing to obey the lawful order of a policeman."

"Sit down, or get out."

Shea announced an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court if necessary.

The pigeons on the Common are having a very bad day, indeed.

Oust Somerville Convicted Clerk

Convicted and sentenced to jail in lower court Wednesday on a larceny charge growing out of acceptance of $260 to "fix up" release of a Norfolk prison camp inmate, John M. Mansfield of Somerville was suspended today from his job as assistant clerk of committee in that city.

Mayor John M. Lynch of Somerville ordered the suspension, effective immediately. He said the conviction indicated Mansfield had used his City Hall office for improper purposes.

Mansfield has appealed his Somerville court conviction and the six months' jail sentence imposed upon him by Judge Charles F. Gadeby. He is free in $500 bail.

His arrest was on complaint of Manuel Matos of Cambridge, who testified he paid Mansfield $260 in seven installments on Mansfield's promise to get Matos' brother out of prison.

Housing 'Rebels' Face U.S. Eviction

Forcible eviction of 40 families from the Charlestown site of the government's newest model housing project here was in prospect today, as Boston Housing Authority heads were reported determined on a "showdown."

Assistant Corporation Counsel Lewis Weinstein, the Boston Housing Authority's legal adviser, was preparing the eviction writs and deputy sheriffs of Suffolk County were facing the unpleasant task of serving them.

Last official word from BHA Chairman John A. Breen was an apparently firm announcement that the 40 families must be ousted today from the Charlestown resettlement area before nightfall with every stick of furniture and every scrap of personal possessions.

Meantime, members of the luckless 40 families, including many women and young children, were still hoping today's "deadline" like a number of previous ones, would mean only mere threats, more red tape and more time for them to find other quarters and means of moving in them.

They were encouraged in this belief by the fact that Breen was not in Boston today.

Also out of town for the weekend was Sheriff John A. Dowd.

Escapes Death By Live Wires

Trapped in a network of charged wires, his cab crushed about him, Frank Fortini, 32, of Washington st., Roslindale, miraculously escaped injury today when the 10-ton truck he was driving blew a tire, left the road and smashed into electric poles in Pleasant st., East Weymouth.

Electric power, telephone and signal systems for the police and fire department were temporarily cut off by the crash. Fortini, trapped in the cab, had to be rescued by firemen.

3D EL BILL READING

The House of Representatives ordered to a third reading a bill authorizing Boston to tear down the Elevated structure in Atlantic

POLICE BOOSTS IN MIXUP

Less than a week after Police Commissioner Timothy announced a new system of promotion of lieutenants by a "merit system," Gov. Saltonstall signed a bill requiring that promotions to captaincies be made from the ranking three lieutenants in a competitive civil service list.

The bill, which abolishes the power of the police commissioner to promote to a captaincy any eligible lieutenant, has scuttled the newly devised merit system but further complicates the situation in the department.

With the retirement of Capt. Thomas R. Connelly of the Warren ave. station, Timothy suggested then demanded the resignation of three other captains. The demand included a blast at Mayor Tobin's action in singling out Capt. Connelly for retirement.

The new system becomes effective immediately under an emergency provision.

Whether the bill, however, abrogates the existing non-competitive list of 25 lieutenants eligible for promotion was cause for considerable speculation at police headquarters. The list was scheduled to remain in effect until August, 1940. The Civil Service Commission announced that no official ruling would be made until an appointment from the present list is submitted to the board for certification, at which time a legal opinion will be sought from the attorney general.

Old Stamp Act Repeated

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

One old ally, England, would like to impose a 10% tax on foreign ships for use in American and foreign ports.

Just how England would like to impose the tax, however, is a small matter. The matter of what to do with the tax is a much bigger one. It is a matter of whether the tax should be imposed on the ships or on the cargo.

When a ship is in a foreign port, the ship is subject to the laws of that country. If a ship is in a foreign port, the ship is subject to the laws of that country.

NAVY SET TO LIFT SQUALUS

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 11 (INS)—The Navy today announced that it will attempt to raise the submarine Squalus, which sank in 1918.

The Squalus, a 2,000-ton submarine, was sunk by a depth charge on Oct. 3, 1918, during a test run. The ship was carrying 26 crew members and 100 tons of munitions. The ship was raised to the surface by a fleet of tugboats and was towed to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., where it was used as a target for anti-aircraft and anti-submarine exercises.

Newbury Only 35 Miles Away, But—Headache!

NEWBURYPORT, Aug. 11.—The difference between Newbury st. and Newbury, Mass., is about 35 miles—and a headache to Charles Boone.

Boone, who lives in Newbury st., got into a cab early today and asked the driver to take him to Newbury st. He then fell quietly asleep.

When he woke the cab was in Newbury and the driver was demanding payment. Patrolman Michael O'Connor of Newburyport police settled the whole problem with the suggestion that Boone take the same cab back again, paying for the return trip, and accepting the trip down "on the house."

SOPHIE TUCKER, WILLIAM GREEN AND RALPH MORGAN
They Seek to Settle Union Split

Red Charges Hurlled In Actors' Dispute

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 11 (INS)—Charges of radicalism and communism hurled at the Screen Actors' Guild by Harry Holmden, leading the fight of the stagehands to control performers units of the A. F. of L., were vigorously denied today by Ralph Morgan, president of the screen actors group.

Holmden made his charges in a hearing before the executive board of the A. F. of L., 1st District, William Green, who reported the charges to a session of the executive board.

Morgan, acting president of the Screen Actors' Guild, defended the actors' union, saying that the American Federation of Actors, which is the actors' division of the four A's, was a conservative organization.

"We denied it and do deny it," Morgan said. "I myself was elected president of the screen actors on a conservative ticket. The charge is a smokescreen to cloud the issue."

"That issue is whether or not the stagehands have the right to charter a performers' union and especially one which we have suspended. We will not yield a single inch on our position that the four A's and no other international has jurisdiction over all performers."

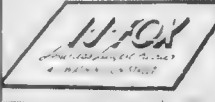

A. Morgan spoke, a committee of three members of the A. F. of L. executive board was reported to have voted to rescind the charges and called that the charges against the actors' union were "unsubstantiated." The A. F. of L. led by William Green, who reported the charges to a session of the executive board.

LAURENCE OLIVIER, GRETA GARBO who was born in Hovmant, Sweden, had the honor of being the first to be signed to play opposite Greta Garbo in "Queen Christina," and when, in a love scene, he placed his arms around Greta, she seems from him and was amused. "Awww, mhwh." The director suggested that Olivier become better acquainted with her and took to Greta about places both had visited. And so in late 1935, Olivier enthralled about the fjords of Norway, Sweden, and the twinned in Scandinavia. But the movie was back in 1935. "I'm not," he said, and whether repeated him in the movie all because of his only reaction to his conversation with Greta. "Awww, hfses with a faunty therk."

Ignace Jan Paderewski, who retired to his home in Poland, insists that he'll never appear on a radio program again. "When I start to play," he explains, "I must play uninterrupted. I cannot have any of my renditions broken up by any advice to buy bath-salts or shaving cream."

"THE HOT MIKADO" (from "The Mikado") and play Boston as a full-length show. It is a regular attraction on Broadway, and competed with the Federal Theatre's "Mikado" in San Francisco. Michael Todd, the producer, decided to do a condensed version at a 40-cent price. Most of the cast of "Mikado" has been in the Federal Theatre up in the air. As a result, the show is a new attraction to Boston, which has always been a great market for the theatre.

How to Give Cocktail Party

how to have the invitations en-

so I can invite is about 100 people.

Instead of having engraved invitations, I suggest that you write your invitations on your visiting cards just as you would a tea invitation. If this seems convenient, I suggest that you buy some invitations especially designed for this type of party. "Informals" (the folded cards) are appropriate for these invitations.

Yes it is customary to write the hours on these invitations. "Five to seven o'clock" are the hours chosen for a cocktail party.

By JACK CONWAY

JOCKEY BERGER has been hot at Rockingham Park . . . He brought in Goldfin and Kindacorn as winners in the last two races at the New Hampshire track on Thursday . . . Lou Smith says other tracks are going to copy his turnstile plan . . . Lou's only regret is that it was impossible for him to patent his idea that is going to revolutionize the pass system at race tracks.

Jockey George Moore was fortunate he didn't receive serious injury when tossed over the rail by Sarouk . . . The mishap emphasized the fact that death rides with the jockeys every time they go whooping away from the barrier . . . White Sand was the only stand-out horse on the Rockingham card . . . The price players are still having their innings, and hope for additional killings today and tomorrow.

Bobby Goldman has been missing from the press box at Rockingham as he has been busy assisting Billy Ames in doing the ballyhoo stunt for Narragansett Park that opens its summer meeting on Monday . . . Bobby calls attention to Buddy Wingfield's statement that Kayak II is the greatest handicap horse in the country . . . If you are looking for laughs ask Lou Smith to give you an invitation to the party he is tossing following today's races . . . Among other features Eddie Mack is down to box six rounds . . . When the sergeant offered to take on all-comers, he ended up with 20 challengers . . . The boys must consider Eddie a soft fistic touch.

Red Sox Still in Pennant Fight

THE RED SOX refuse to be counted out in the American League pennant fight . . . Only five and a half games behind the Yanks Joe Cronin's club still has a chance to overhaul the Yanks . . . Pitching will tell the story in the run through the stretch . . . If the Sox get good pitching, they will give the Yanks a real battle . . . The pressure will tell on the world's champions if the Sox can continue their present fast pace.

On paper, the Yanks have a better pitching staff than the Red Sox . . . Joe McCarthy's team with Bill Dickey also has the edge in catching . . . If the Yanks win again, credit for their victory will be due to their battery strength . . . For batting power the Sox top the Yanks.

The Sox have proved a good road club, and so will have a chance to improve their league standing during the coming march through the West . . . Ted Williams will also bat better on the road than he has at home . . . He will have shorter stands in right field than in the case at Fenway Park.

Rural Rube and Cherokee Stroller Tonight

IT WILL be Rural Rube and Cherokee Stroller again tonight at Wonderland Park . . . In their first test over the 5-16 of a mile distance Rural Rube won easily . . . Cherokee Stroller was out of the money . . . At the futurity distance Rural Rube does not do so well, and the backers of Cherokee Stroller are hopeful that their favorite will cross the finish line in front . . . Suwanee ran second to Rural Rube in the 5-16 of a mile test, and earlier in the season won from Bud Carroll's greyhound over the futurity distance . . . Asked if he would sell Rural Rube for $10,000 Carroll answered NO! . . . Rural Rube will earn that much in purses, while Carroll gets considerable pride out of his ownership of the champion greyhound.

George Funk, who knows his boxing as well as his greyhound racing, says that if Mike Jacobs is to succeed in his boxing promotions at the Boston Garden that he will have to feature local boxers against the visiting stars . . . Funk believes Billy Conn, world's light heavyweight champion, will prove one of Jacobs' best attractions here. There will be a special train from Boston to the Armstrong-Ambers bout in New York on August 22 . . . The train under the direction of Matchmaker "Rip"

Valenti of the Goodwin A. C. will leave Boston at 12 o'clock on the day of the bout, and leave New York for this city at 12 noon on the following day . . . Ambers has many supporters in this city who were impressed by his Boston appearances against Paul Junior and Honey Melody . . . In view of Armstrong's inability to make 135 pounds, his world's welterweight title will be at stake . . . Hammering Henry will vacate his world's lightweight title.

Random Shots at Title

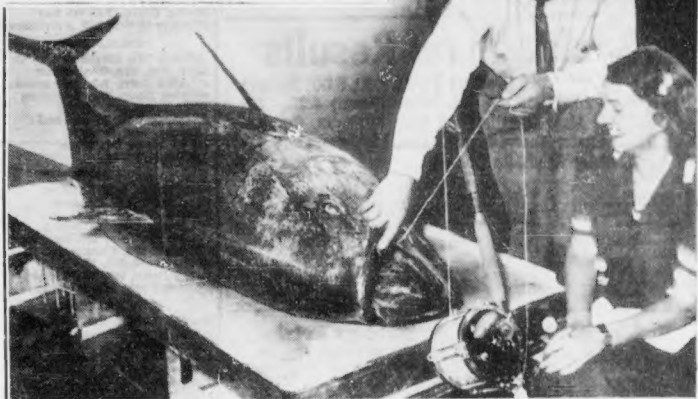

GREAT BARRINGTON is planning a running horse meeting in conjunction with a fair . . . The Cincinnati Reds have a bad case of jitters . . . Bill McKechnie will have to use all of his baseball magic to keep his club together . . . Just when it appeared as if the Yanks and Reds were sure pennant winners in their respective leagues things went boom . . . Tommy Bridges continues to pitch brilliant ball for the Tigers . . . It was his fifth straight victory when he defeated the Chicago White Sox yesterday . . . The Tigers have plenty of hitting power . . . Like the Red Sox, they have needed hitting.

George Freeman of the Irish American A. A. announces he will be back on the firing line with his amateur boxing shows at the Arena on September 18 . . . Freeman plans to stage shows every Monday night . . . Amateur boxing has gone big in Boston during the past four years . . . The Heart All-American shows will be featured again this year . . . Plans for this big tournament will be announced within ten days. Sheldon Fairbanks tells me he has rested up his horses for the Narragansett Park meeting that opens on Monday . . . Fairbanks campaigned his stable at Suffolk Downs, but passed up the Rockingham meeting as he felt his thoroughbreds needed a layoff . . . Sheldon has also been busy acting as general manager of the dog race meeting at Wonderland Park. John T. Lambert of the Suffolk Downs force and Mrs. Lambert are vacationing at the New Ocean House at Swampscott . . . Charles F. Adams, president of Suffolk Downs, has purchased a small yacht which he has moored near his summer home at Rockport.

TUNA KING AIDS ANGLER TO BREAK OWN RECORD

EASY if you know how. Clarence M. Frost of Milton tells Mrs. Dorothy Gremman how he caught 736-pound tuna off Newburyport. It is the largest tuna (look at it) ever caught in American waters. Frost, nice to say, was assisted in landing the fish by Ben Crowninshield, who himself held title with 710-pounder before Frost's catch.

By DARK MONTREAL

Good sportmanship among anglers so often suffers from matter-of-fact acceptance that I think Ben Crowninshield deserves some mention.

Crowninshield held the American tuna record until Wednesday when he went out of his way to assist another angler to win it.

Trotting in Ipswich Bay aboard his private cruiser, Honker, he came upon Capt. Malcolm Hudson's charter boat with Clarence M. Frost, of Milton, fast to a record bluefin. Crowninshield stood by until the tuna was alongside the charter boat, which lacked the facilities for hoisting the big fish aboard. He volunteered use of the Honker's tackle, his offer was accepted and he lost the record when his own equipment took the fish aboard.

Frost's bluefin weighed 736 pounds as compared with Crowninshield's 710-pounder boated last year. The new record fish was landed on 84-thread line in the amazing time of 27 minutes with a school of hungry sharks swimming around.

It would be a happy climax if Crowninshield should win back the record before heading Down East as a member of the United States team that will compete in the International Tuna Angling Cup matches next month.

And speaking of the forthcoming tournament for the "Davis Cup" of angling, the Alton B. Sharp Trophy, reports from Wedgeport, N. S. indicate a run of heavy fish that should provide fast competition.

Ten tuna fell to rod and reel in the Wedgeport rips on Aug. 3 and 4. The largest 675 pounds, was killed by J. H. Carrover of Washington, D. C. Donald D. Crosby of Wrentham, with a 420-pounder, and Robert Tuilher of Springfield, with a 405-pounder, were Bay State anglers who scored.

Others successful were John N. Manning, Los Angeles; Dr. W. Hamilton, New Rochelle, N. Y.; H. J. Wright, N. Y. (2 fish); James Hay, Los Angeles, and McClure Bailey, Brooklyn, N. Y. A 760-pounder, killed by N. J. Bowditch of Boston on July 31, is the largest bluefin killed on the Atlantic coast this year.

Announcement is made today of the French team that will compete in the matches. It is composed of M. Philippe Magdelain, M. Labedeff, M. Estier and M. Louis de Bodard de la Jacquerie, all of Paris. M. Labedeff has killed many huge tuna in the Mediteranean. One of them was a 893-pounder which would now be a world's rod and reel record except for some accident in the boating of it (not explained) that kept the fish out of the rod and reel class.

The Frenchmen will arrive in New York Aug. 31 and go direct to Wedgeport. The personnel of all the competing teams except the Belgian has now been chosen.

Fresh water fishing has slowed down somewhat but Lake Boone, at Hudson, is producing some nice large mouth bass. Al Blinstrub, of Western ave., Brighton, took one weighing five pounds, three ounces. His brother, William, came up with a three-pounder and Dominic Youka with one weighing three pounds, 12 ounces.

The mackerel are still everywhere. Bluefish are still rare. Except in the surf and the tide rips, the striped angling isn't producing much. There are a lot of sharks in Buzzards Bay—small blues. Also more and larger squalae than in many years.

Sears Open SATURDAY Until 9:30 P. M.

Congratulations!

Mr. Clarence M. Frost

Sears congratulates you, Mr. Frost, for landing the largest tuna fish ever caught in American waters, creating a World's Record.

Mr. Frost used Sears' rod, reel, line and hooks. With this same equipment he has caught several other tuna fish totaling over 2000 pounds.

American Derby Revived in '40

CHICAGO, Aug. 11 (AP). The historic American Derby, first run in 1884, will be revived in 1940 at Washington Park, Walter L. Gregory, president of the Jockey Club, announced today.

Two other rich stakes, the Washington Park Futurity and the Washington Park Handicap, also will be run next season, giving the suburban course one of the richest summer meetings of the national turf schedule.

The American Derby, at a mile and a quarter, will carry $100,000 in wood quits.

WOOD QUITS CUP SQUAD
RYE, N. Y., Aug. 11 (INS). Sidney Wood, fourth ranking national star, who was named for the Davis Cup squad by Walter Pate, announced here today that he would be unable to report. Wood is flying to California on business to tomorrow to look after his mining interests.

GIANTS HUMBLE BEES

NEW YORK, Aug. 11 (INS).—The Giants jumped away to a four-run lead in the first inning and wound up with a 6 to 2 victory over the Boston Bees.

Mel Ott walked a homer with two on base, and Joe Moore also clouted a homer to account for all the first-inning tallies. Johnny Lanning was routed during the fourth frame when they tallied all their runs.

In the last six innings, MacFayden held the Giants to just one hit, but that was a home run by Alex Kampouris.

Hub Marksmen In Sixth Place

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11 (AP)—Two defending title holders, after mediocre performances in earlier competition found their shooting eyes as the first round of the all-gauge national skeets championships got under way.

Henry Joy of Detroit, defending his crown in the men's scattergun classic, turned in a perfect 100 to share leadership in the first of the three-day event. His feat was equaled by Joe Puckett, a Fresno, Calif., unknown.

The women's champion, 17-year-old Pat Laursen from Akron, Ohio, held her ground in the all-gauge target event with a first round 94.

The five-man team from Fresno, just about stole the show in the national squad championship by moving into a first round lead with 491 out of a possible 500.

Tied for second were the Los Angeles-Santa Monica and the Oklahoma State squads at 487, with the 1938 champion team, the Los Angeles Glomires, in fourth place at 480.

The Capital City Club of Indianapolis was in fifth position with 479 and the Hill Top Club of Boston, one of the pre-tournament favorites, in sixth place with 478.

The second round of 100 will be shot today and the final 50 in the three all-gauge events Saturday.

CANOEISTS HOLD SWAY SUNDAY

The fifth annual New England Canoe Sprint Championships, under the direction of the Samoset Canoe Club of West Roxbury, will take place on Charles River in West Roxbury, Sunday afternoon, starting at 1 o'clock.

A large entry list from leading Canoe Clubs throughout New England, have already been received by the committee. Heading this list is Walter Hasenfus of the Needham C. C. and William Althausen, Breeds C. C., Dedham, recent winners of national titles at the World's Fair, Hasenfus is a former Olympian, paddling for Uncle Sam in the '36 games.

Leo Hickox and Bernard Schwendeman of Crescent Canoe Club of Waltham, will again be on hand to defend their senior blade tandem title against Hasenfus and Ted Blackman, four times winner of the 26-mile canoe marathon.

The ten major events to be contested, will take place over a course from Spring St. bridge to Havey's Beach.

Other clubs entered are Samoset and Nite Owls from West Roxbury, Needham C. C. and the Dedham C. C.

2-YEAR-OLD CHAMP IN GANSETT CLASSIC

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Aug. 11—El Chico, unbeaten champion of the two-year-olds in 1938, looked very much like the horse to beat when Racing Secretary Bob Shelley assigned weights for the $5000 added Narragansett Handicap.

William Zeigler, Jr.'s crack sprinter, back in his 1938 form after a layoff due to a foot injury sustained in the Kentucky Derby, will carry an impost of 115 in Gansett's opening day feature.

With this weight and with the capable Nick Wall in the pilot house, El Chico may justify the claims of trainer Matt Brady that the John P. Grier colt cannot be beaten at six furlongs. The colt's recent victory in the one mile Narragansett Handicap at Saratoga indicates that he is in rare form right now.

118 POUNDS ON ROUGH TIME

Rough Time, Yancery Christmas' 5-year-old Grand Time gelding has been knocking at the door all season and will supply the main contention. Rough Time, a smashing second to Be Blue in his most recent outing and before that a good third to Fighting Fox in the Carter Handicap at Aqueduct, has been assigned 118 pounds.

With Fighting Fox, 126 pounds, and Lignard, 118 pounds, both held in training due to injuries, Rough Time will tote top weight in the Narragansett Handicap.

Bill Farnsworth, six-year-old gelded son of Crack Brigade, owned by Mrs. G. C. Winfrey, indicated recently at Empire City that he must be reckoned with. Shelley has assigned him 113 pounds, and if Workman rides, as he usually does, Bill Farnsworth cannot be discounted.

COUNT ON BE BLUE

Be Blue, winner of the Inaugural Handicap at the Gansett spring meet and later victor over Rough Time and Porter's Mile in the Tomlin Handicap at Rockingham, has been assigned 113 pounds.

Tom Heard, Jr., is high on the chances of this four-year-old daughter of Blue Larkspur, Winston Guest's Druggery, winner of the Arlington Inaugural Handicap on June 28, has been assigned 116 pounds and off that race, in which he beat Easy Mon, Joe Schenck and Flying I-I, rates a fighting chance.
